

Exhibit 10

risk factor

(... FAK-ter)

Something that increases the chance of developing a disease. Some examples of risk factors for cancer are age, a family history of certain cancers, use of tobacco products, being exposed to radiation or certain chemicals, infection with certain viruses or bacteria, and certain genetic changes.

More Information

Risk Factors for Cancer

Search NCI's Dictionary of Cancer Terms

☒ Starts with ☐ Contains

Enter keywords or phrases

Search